

On behalf of the men and women of Russell County EMS, I welcome you to our website. I hope you find it easy to navigate as well as informative.

I take great pride in being entrusted with the honor and responsibility that comes with leading the team at Russell County EMS. As Director, I continue to seek and embrace changes that resolve the problems affecting our community in a forthright and effective manner. To accomplish this, the values and principles upon which the department was founded will continue to play a major role in how we serve the public and will be used as our parameters of future success.

As we continue to grow, Russell County EMS continues to move forward, we will maintain the highest standards of professional ethics and personal integrity as we fulfill our mission. We strive to provide quality services performed with integrity and respect for all who have interaction with our staff.

Please explore our website and allow us to share our proud tradition in public service. We will continue to provide you with valuable and easy to access on-line information as we continue to build upon and improve our web site for you.

Thank you for visiting our website.

*Terry Hancock, Director
Russell County EMS*